"We rejoice at the kind Providence which brought him to us, and we thank him for ourselves and the church, for his faithful labors among us. We are glad to believe that the good gifts and graces so abundantly manifested during his sojourn with us, are the assurance of a ministry full of usefulness to the church and of honor to its Master; and we part from him with unfeigned regret, assuring him of our affectionate interest in him, commending him to the brethern and the churches, and devoutly asking for him and for his ministry the rich blessing of God."

Death of Miss Norah Stockwell.

The remains of Miss Stockwell arrived in this city last night, and were this morning taken to the undertaking es-tablishment of Wm. Clark and prepared or interment. The funeral ceremonies cok place this afternoon at the M. E. for interment. The funeral ceremonies took place this afternoon at the M. E. Church, Rev. Snodgrass efficiating, and were attended by a large number of friends and schoolmates of the deceased, the high school having adjourned for the purpose of attending in a body. Miss Stockwell was a graduate of last year's class, and took a very prominent part in the graduating exercises at the Whitley opera house, as will be remembered by many of our readers. She was a sister of Mrs. Charles Dynes, and was universally loved and respected by all who were so fortunate as to be her acquaintances. One of the sad features of her untimely and sudden death is that she was engaged, and the wedding day fixed, to a young man well known in Emporia, and who we believe is at present in California. The exercises at the church were very solemn, and the heartfelt sorrow of all present went out in a state of the sad features of the purpose of attending in a body. Many Steward 91. Last Tuesday's election proved a glo-rious victory for the Republicans of the guest of Mrs. Allen G. Thurman last Tuesday. Highland county. The old county nobly redeemed herself by giving round, handsome majorities to every man on the Republican ticket, from Robinson to Grim. Despite the desperate efforts of the Democrats, Dittey and Denver's boodle, assisted by Gaddis' greenbacks, not a single Republican was left out in the cold.

The work was quietly done. The weather was beautiful, which always insures a full Republican vote. Republicans came up to the polls smiling and confident. Democrats were apprehensive from the first.
